Brandon JROTC Marksmanship Team competes in National Air Rifle Competition

Brandon, MS – The Brandon High School JROTC Marksmanship Team competed in the 2010 National JROTC Championship in Anniston, Ala., March 26-27.

This National level championship brought the best of the best from all, Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines JROTC Service for a shoulder-to-shoulder two day competition. Brandon High School JROTC placed 12th overall in the nation among all the services, and placed third overall within the Army JROTC Service. Team coach SFC (Ret) Sam Watts says he is very proud of all the success this team has had this year. "The cadets are highly disciplined, and focused on what they do. The team will continue to train and get ready for the next school year competition events."
